Dear Friends of SiCM,

2019 was an extraordinary year for Schenectady Community Ministries. Four major transitions, all fundamental to our work and life, came at the same time. These were: (1) becoming an interfaith organization; the retirement of Rev. Philip Grigsby, our Executive Director; (3) a capital campaign to enable (4) movement to a unified campus Resource Center.

Early in the year, at the request of Messiah Lutheran Church in Rotterdam, we appointed a committee to research moving from being ecumenical to becoming interfaith. We moved immediately to invite other faith communities, some of whom have supported SiCM actively for years.

In the spring, we learned that our long time Executive Director, Rev. Phil Grigsby, would retire at year's end. We went to work together on creating a plan for that change! Rev. Grigsby has been with us for over 33 years. We needed to plan a fitting farewell/thank you party; a smooth but thoughtful transition; and a search process for a new Executive Director. We are fortunate to be working with Susan Weinrich of NYCON New York Council of Nonprofits as we embark on a journey into a new future growing from the many years of Rev. Phil's prophetic and visionary leadership.

In the fall, we began a capital campaign for a new united campus "Resource Center" on the site of our current food pantry, parking lot and adjacent building. In his final months as Executive Director, Rev. Phil led the way in raising approximately $800,000 in just four months. The generous donors were individuals, congregations and foundations.

As we begin 2020, we are poised to begin the renovation phase, having already replaced the roof on the food-pantry building! Throughout this very busy year God has been very much in the mix. We have benefited from a wonderful staff team, diligent leadership from your Steering Committee, and wise executive leadership, both from Phil Grigsby and Jo-Anne Rafalik. Throughout, your past presidents, Shirley Readdean and Randy McGough, have provided guidance and direction.

In the year to come, we need your help, donations, ideas, volunteer efforts—more than ever! The future is wide open, as we who are SiCM grow into new partnerships, welcome new interfaith participation and undertake the search process for a new Executive Director.

I am grateful for the privilege of working with all of you. May God bless and guide us in the years to come.

Respectfully and with affection,
Peter JB Carman, President

All Good Things Must Come to an End

After 33 1/2 years, it is time to say goodbye. Not an easy decision. I remember vividly my first day on the job at State Street Presbyterian Church. SiCM has moved three times since! So long ago but it seems like yesterday. I have worked with (at times) and advocated to (at times) 5 city Mayors and more Council Members than I can count!

I am thankful to have been called to this ministry. I have been blessed. The day after I came, the newspaper headline was: "GE lays off 4,000." I knew then that SiCM and I would be facing difficult days. At our last Assembly meeting, I shared some of the ups and downs; not everything worked. But it is good to recall our successes: our campaign to restore school lunch in schools and initiate school breakfast; SAFE House; Bethesda House; the Community Land Trust; the Project SKIP playground; safe parks and edible playgrounds; a model food pantry; summer meals with mobile meals; gardens; Spiritually Sound and Physically Fit; the Schenectady Damien Center; Food4Schdy; campaigns with the Committee for Social Justice on police and community issues; the recent campaign to stop a liquor store coming to Albany Street; the recent "miracle of multiplication" led by MVP for a new van, and more. I've written up three articles about SiCM's history and approach; send me a shoutout if you would like one.

I am leaving SiCM in a good place. With the strong start of the capital campaign, SiCM will focus, add programming, and move ahead. Thank you to all who have given so far! Although it is a challenging fiscal time, SiCM is in a good place financially. I am grateful – for SO much and SO many. I am especially grateful to Jo-Anne Rafalik for stepping in to provide transition leadership from her strong experience and dedication.

I am also grateful to the current (and past) dedicated staff that work hard each day. I am grateful for our strong Steering Committee, who with the assistance of NYCON (NY Committee on Nonprofits) will guide the search for my replacement. I am grateful for our congregations and partners for support in many ways. I am grateful to our leaders, especially the ones I recall who have gone before in the "communion of saints" that I have been blessed to work with and on whose shoulders truly we stand.

As I depart, I know you will continue to support this ministry. Please, do not only keep up your support but add to it. The work is needed today more than ever. With your support it can flourish.

Remember: "change is inevitable, but transformation is optional." Go with God at those places of transformation where we believe God to be at work. Or as my own Congregational/UCC forebears put it: "There is yet light and truth to break forth."

Grace and Peace,
Rev. Phillip N. Grigsby

SiCM's Vision

Everyone has access to healthy, nutritious food.

636,525

Total Meals Provided

The SiCM Food Program addressed public health needs such as hunger and nutrition, encouraged healthy behaviors, and advocated to improve the lives of high-need populations. The SiCM Food Program included the Food Pantry with support services, a Community Garden, and a Summer Meals program for anyone under 19.

The Pantry was open four days a week and provided guests who were in need of temporary and emergency food with nutritious groceries.

Households Served

Once a month mass food distribution was offered. Van rides home were offered to guests. Community organizations offered information and assistance at the pantry to help guests learn about community resources. The pantry offered special programs, such as Senior Connect, Sit & Knit and food deliveries to the homebound. Many community organizations and individuals volunteered to assist the pantry and warehouse. Funding provided in part by: NYS Hunger Prevention Nutrition Assistance Program (HPNAP).

I come to the SiCM Food Pantry because I like the staff and they let you pick your own food. I also like the energy and love here. SiCM is good for community. I live around the corner and come once a month. I have six at home and SiCM gives out a nice portion of food.

Community Garden

333 Hulett St
Schenectady, NY

SiCM's Vision for the Garden

Gardeners save money and learn how to grow their own fruits and vegetables.

The Schenectady Community Garden is located at 333 Hulett Street, which is centrally located a block away from our Food Pantry. We have an acre of land that houses 18 plots that are available to our families. We strongly welcome beginners.

Community residents were offered 18 plots to grow their own fresh fruits and vegetables. SiCM provided support through a staff person and volunteers who prepared the soil for planting. The garden operated April through November. Each gardener was responsible for maintaining their own plot. Many gardeners donated produce to the pantry. Community and faith-based organizations and individuals volunteered to assist gardeners.

The property on Hulett St. is possible through a partnership with Duryee Memorial AME Zion Church.

All our families are given starter plants, seeds and all the basic tools to begin their garden journey. The SiCM Community Garden is 100% organic and we are learning to compost anything that might be left over. While our families are growing healthy, nutritious fresh vegetables, they are also becoming self sufficient.

Lettuce, squash and zucchini are just a few of the plants that were grown during the summer. The families grow herbs and transfer them to grow them at home during the winter months. There were four families that have been a part of our garden journey during 2019 and they have come back every year.

Summer Meals

Summer Meals provided free breakfasts and/or lunches to youth 18 and younger at parks, public housing locations, and churches. The program offered mobile site locations throughout the county. Teams of SiCM summer staff, interns and volunteers served the meals and engaged children with fun activities, such as arts and crafts, reading, etc. The program started at the end of the school year and continued until school restarted.

The summer meals 2019 program was a success! Our new location at St. George's Episcopal Church in the Stockade was very welcoming to our program. The kitchen being on one floor allowed for us to quickly pack lunches for our mobile sites before heading out into the Schenectady streets to feed hungry kids. This year we provided 27,268 meals at fixed sites, 16,129 meals at mobile sites, 11,887 breakfasts for a grand total of 55,284 meals.

Volunteers and Interns

Schenectady Community Ministries relies on volunteers and interns to support its programs and special events. The organization uses over 1,200 volunteers working with SiCM's programs.

The Internship Program runs each year through the support of the congregations and individual donors. The purpose of the SiCM internship is to offer college students experience working in SiCM or related programs. Internships provide experience to students, especially those interested in considering or pursuing human services, social welfare, education, faith-based, non-profit, and/or public health careers. During the summer of 2019, the program had eight (8) interns from various congregations from Schenectady and Scotia. They rotated work at the food pantry, community gardens, administrative tasks and the summer meals sites.

The Volunteer Program runs throughout the year. Volunteers assist at the SiCM Food Pantry daily doing intakes, serving guests, transportation of guests and home deliveries, preparing basic grocery bags, working in the warehouse and organizing events. Without these volunteers, the food pantry would not be able to operate. Other volunteers, individuals and groups, work at the meal sites during the Summer Meals Program.

Community Engagement and Advocacy

SiCM staff and volunteers helped to load up over 400 carloads of back to school supplies and food for Schenectady families at the Price Rite Back to School Drive Thru Event in August.

The Development Department managed the following events: SouperBowl Sunday, The Empty Bowls Project, Schenectady CROP Hunger Walk, SPAC Summer Nights, Open Door Fundraiser, Music Company Orchestra Concert, and Holiday and Awards Celebration.

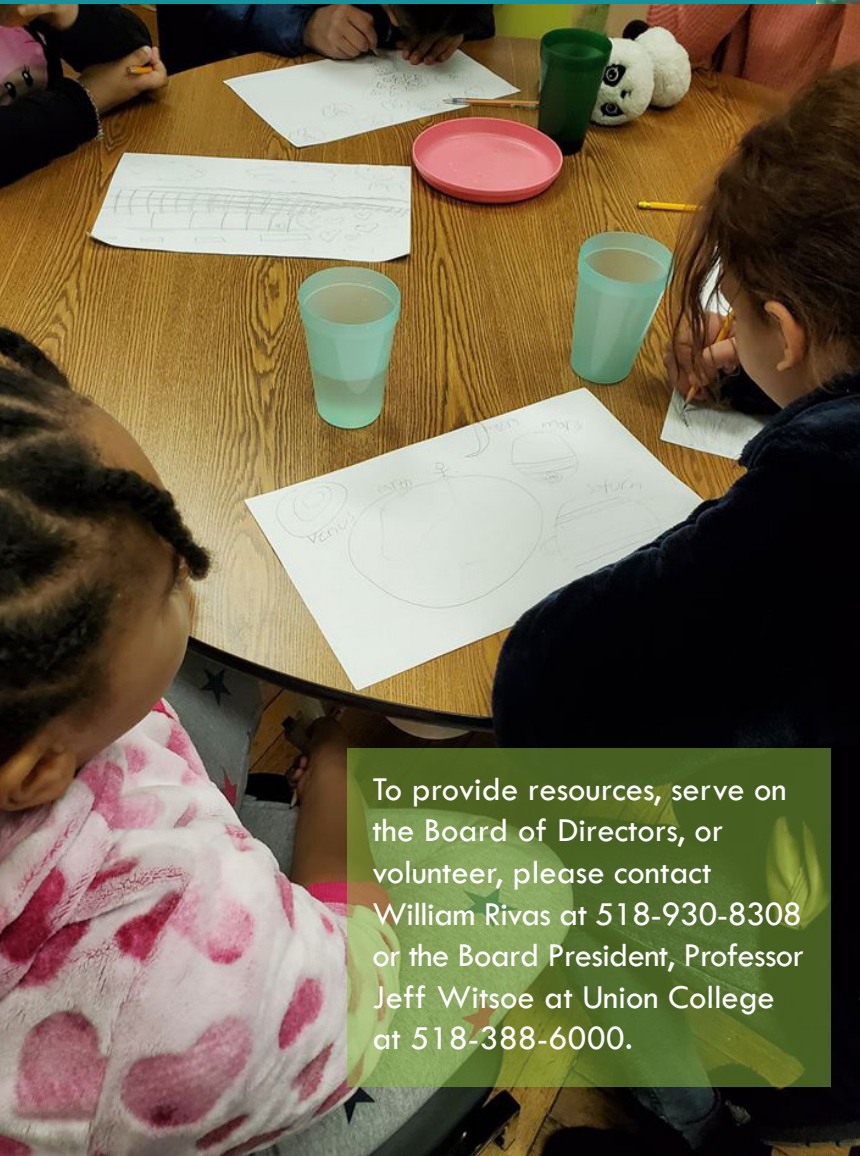

A new Food Drive process was implemented through the Fill The Van Food Drives. They were held at the Niskayuna Co-op, Mohawk Honda, and Schenectady CROP Hunger Walk. This allowed SiCM to use the iconic summer meals trucks to collect and transport food as well as advertise for our organization. Contact Laura Pinckney if you would like to host a Fill The Van Food Drive for SiCM at your organization at 518.374.2683 x 103.

Development led SiCM to approve the new database. Salsa was purchased to help with donor tracking and contact management. The Vista employee, Chinira Lovick, began a second year at SiCM working towards the Education Award for her Vista service. We are thankful for her continued dedicated work for SiCM.

Supporting Our Community Partners

Patty's Place is a drop-in support and referral center for women engaged in sex work. We provide basic services such as hygiene items, condoms, and clothing which help these women be safer in their current lives. We also offer counseling and referrals for longer-term services that can help them improve their lives and leave the sex trade. Most of the women with whom we work have suffered from years of abuse and have a variety of overlapping problems and needs. Patty's Place gives them a network of supportive relationships and help navigating the diverse services they need.

To provide resources, serve on the Board of Directors, or volunteer, please contact William Rivas at 518-930-8308 or the Board President, Professor Jeff Witsoe at Union College at 518-388-6000.

C.O.C.O.A. (Children of Our Community Open to Achievement) House, Inc. provides free after-school homework help to elementary school children. SICM assisted the program some years ago, and now the program is in another partnership with SiCM.

Located across the street from Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Elementary School, the program is open weekdays from 2:30 to 6:00, offering a safe, creative space with positive role models. Volunteers provide homework help and nutritious food to some of the most vulnerable children in the City of Schenectady. (In this neighborhood the median household annual income is $22,394.) An average of 25 children attend daily.

Currently staffed entirely by volunteers from Union College and the neighborhood, the program was in danger of closing until William Rivas agreed to volunteer as Executive Director. Bringing a renewed sense of purpose, Rivas shifted the organization's focus from tutoring to mentoring. Today, Union College students continue their involvement, with 20+ students volunteering each semester and C.O.C.O.A. House Club raising funds for food and trips.

St. Joseph's Place

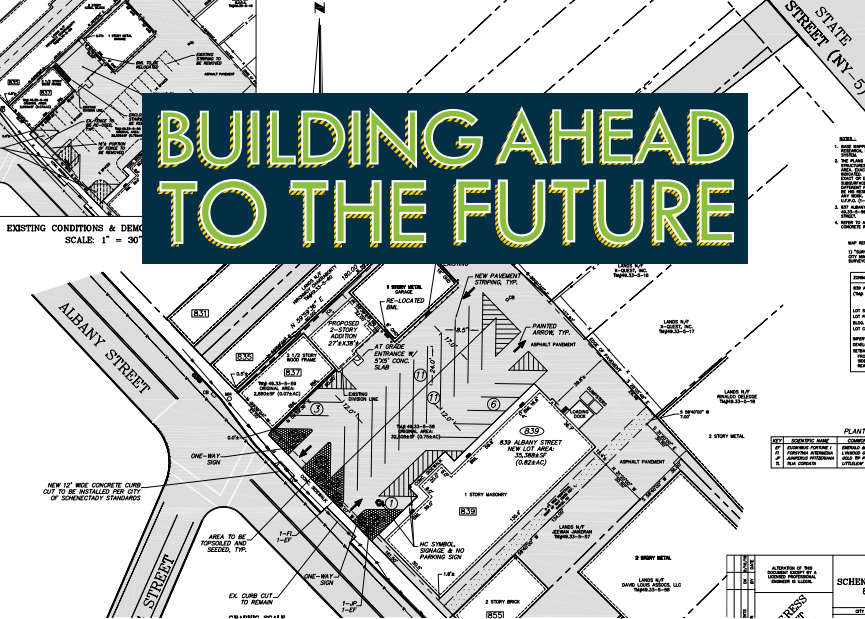

A Ministry of St. Joseph's Parish
Downtown Schenectady

St. Joseph's Place, a ministry of Historic St. Joseph's Parish, is a place of hospitality, refreshment, prayer and conversation. This small store front building is located in the heart of Hamilton Hill on Albany Street. The ministry began as a result of the dream of the late Father Michael J. Hogan, pastor of St. Joseph's. Previously he had been the pastor of Sacred Heart Church on Hamilton Hill and when that parish closed, he was acutely aware that there was no Catholic presence on the hill. Sisters Linda Neil, CSJ and Ann Christi Brink, CSJ worked closely with Father Hogan to make his dream a reality.

Each day about 20 – 30 of our neighbors stop by to pray, visit and enjoy a cup of coffee. Some of these people are transitioning back into society after incarceration; some are lonely and all are looking for a place to share their story. At the present time some other Sisters of St. Joseph and Associates volunteer their time to be with our neighbors.

BUILDING AHEAD TO THE FUTURE

Building Ahead to the Future is the capital campaign to create the SiCM resource center, campus, and renovation of the food pantry. It was launched in October.

The Resource Center, Renovated Pantry, and Warehouse will be fully operational and attractive, with more guests receiving nutritious food and a variety of supports, including personalized referrals to a variety of community resources and access to computers and internet and a “Teaching Kitchen.” SiCM predicts food insecurity and the demand for SiCM’s services will grow with anticipated cutbacks in SNAP benefits and more affordable housing in the neighborhood.

You can help SiCM build a resource center to help the growing demand for services. SiCM is offering you the opportunity to invest in our future by purchasing shares at $50/month with a three year commitment totaling $1800, and earning you a spot on the honorary committee.

If you would like more information about Building Ahead to the Future please call the office at 518.374.2683 and speak to Jo-Anne Rafalik or visit the SiCM website at sicism.us.

“It excites me to envision the possibilities that this Capital Campaign makes possible: a consolidation of SiCM’s efforts now and in the future to continue and expand our call to social works and social justice when operating at a central campus.” Pat Obrecht
